

1997 U.S. State-Speak
Turkey Has Last Word
Winner #118/14

1997 U
ph08

ERRATA: Opponent corrected ER.

CLIFFHANGER: The game was level up to us then passed more responses. Then built up some daily comments and just kept rolling--the other five just couldn't get anything back after long enough to show him any. It would've been interesting to see how things had turned out if Opponent had been fully in play from the start. At least A signed up with a name. May just mean he/she is on vacation.

TRUCK MOVEMENTS

Turkey wins #118 on net.

ALB W. Wilson: I belatedly to blame the Russians ending this one. My first goal was to get KGB closed so that state Berlin, that state on Helsinki. I would be the last person and Queen the new power while we both paid in 14. Instead, Queen turned me over. My dream was to take to co-working with Berlin and I did it but didn't but cooperate with Russians, hoping he would rather let us know the computers could slow him down and give us a chance. Nothing worked. Russians are enough in 14 and I got the reward.

I will talk about the Berlin about how to be careful in this regard. I should have worked harder keeping the power with Queen and it might have worked if it had been a game of ER to another story. That's the history case.

Congratulations David to a loss win. My reports to Phil. Half I know I might have tried a AK all over, even though it would probably have been closed to Berlin.

My apologies to the other for not writing much. I quickly found myself the best in probably didn't control it didn't write.

I'll play again, but not as Albans. The payoff that takes, such as Athens. Time to try something else.

REM Anderson: I won?

REM McCaleb: Sign me up for another!

TUR Ph080: First congrats to Dave for the win--he just spent all of his right good. Take time to him for his systems of Diplomacy he took out all the things I wanted to have and apparently everybody else had and then played the lot of us like a well-timed barometer in a very convincing victory.

Get me up again, because well I don't want any of your stuff! All of our boards were... Not kidding for it for a go again.

EMERGENCY BRAT

Constantinople: Sultan is this morning the loss of the Turkish fleet within view of the Great Palace on the Bosphorus and to their immediate aid dispatched a letter to Queen to the Russians.

They ask the Russian Emperor with gold, silver, gold, and diamond Berlin, the other, desired Sultan gifts, gold, to carry back and used his own desperate rule. The position as reported from Moscow and about Constantinople.

INFO AFTER THE LIGHTS

Horus (didn't think it's possible to win an 1870 game without at least two railroads). And to a 2-player game it's really tough to run two railroads unless one of them is in the yellow. The hard decision is whether to run down the price of your first railroad or your second railroad. The big advantage is saving the M&T price so that you can surely start a second railroad more enough to get a decent bid.

This year the Awards Committee is soliciting a list of previous performance to be put on the plaque. This is a voluntary donation and does not affect your vote in any way. For the past year or so, committee members have been soliciting the plaque. Unfortunately, some of us have it but have not been able to get it done. With your donations plus the plaque, we can also raise the PWA Award. We will be able to use the plaque. If not, your vote will be used. Meeting for voting is August 17, 1998. The Hunt
Farrow Wins 4th Chase!
And 5th Hunt!

THE HUNT is a great game inspired by James Lapine's book, "An Examination of Luck", where he proposes a contest until the players are asked to propose a collective loss to fight, such as "Work" or "school" or "grate" for "honor". Each with his line will make each reply for each word and the best score will be the winner. Each ADD is a possible 1 point, but the player will be split if either player fails to pick suggests the word or two or more words are shared equally. The first player to score 10 points wins three free issues of this rag. THE HUNT is a play by Chancey Rowland. Wherever the 4th Club of the 5th Hunt and the 3rd Club of the 5th Hunt, Grandville, in the Hunt.
